

CRIMINAL DIFFERENCES

THE ROLE OF RACE AND ETHNICITY IN DETENTION, JUVENILE COURT, AND AMERICAN JUSTICE

THE ROLE OF RACE AND ETHNICITY IN DETENTION, JUVENILE COURT, AND AMERICAN JUSTICE

What role does race and ethnicity play in how American courts and the criminal justice system detains, polices, arrests, punishes, and incarcerates? What are the implications of such differences - for inequality and civil rights?

A Roundtable Discussion

Participants:

- Paul Hirschfield (Sociology)
- Lisa Miller (Political Science)
- Jon'a Meyer (Sociology and Criminal Justice)
- Anne Piehl (Economics and Criminal Justice)
- Zaire Dinzey-Flores (Sociology and Latino and Hispanic Caribbean Studies)

Center for Race &
Ethnicity

Friday, October 26
12:00 p.m. (Lunch will be provided)

191 College Avenue