

GRADUATE FORUM ON RACE & ETHNICITY

MARCH 8, 2008

11:00 | Coffee and Welcome

11:15- 12:00 | Policing and Policy

Peter Manda (Public Policy), Title TBA

Paul Reck (Sociology), "Placing Race and Policing in Context: An Investigation of How Patrol Officers' Perceptions of Racial Groups Are Shaped by the Local Contexts in which They Are Embedded"

Ji-Hye Shin (History), "Madness and Control: Insanity among Immigrant Women"

Lois Wamaitha (Law), "The 'New Philanthropists' in Africa: Is the Aid Going to Help This Time Around?"

12:05- 12:50 | Crossing Borders

Susan Billmaier (Political Science), "Self Identity and Symbolic Form: How Internalized Racism Expresses Itself in Nella Larsen's Novel Quicksand"

George Chavez (Psychology), "Racial Identity Fluidity in Multiracial Individuals"

Shakti Jaising (English), "Re-writing History and Re-Mapping Geography: The Discourse of Globalization and the Neoliberal World-view"

Stephanie Jones-Rodgers (History), "Mischievous Speculations": The United States Occupation of Haiti and the Politics of Racial Exclusion

12:50-1:30 | Lunch

1:30- 2:15 | Breakout Sessions

Getting Through, A collectively moderated session on managing coursework and exams.

Getting Funded, Moderated by Teresa Delcorso (Chaser Resource Center for Graduate Student External Support)

Getting Out, Moderated by Melissa Stein (PhD Candidate, History) and Jane Junn (Associate Professor, Political Science)

2:20- 3:05 | Geographies of Race

Patricia Hampson (History), "From Racial Segregation to Racial Pluralism: Berkeley and Montclair: A Comparative Study of Women's Activism on Racial Segregation"

Frederick Hanna (Social and Philosophical Foundations in Education), "All the Help We Can Get: The Relationship Between Access to Social Capital and Achievement for Inner City African American Youth"

Carolyn Malcom (English), "Approaching the Mega-city: Urban Shantytowns in Contemporary Global Culture"

Heather Shannon (Art History), "Natives in the Barrio: William Henry Brown's Stereoscopic Series of Santa Fe"

3:10- 3:55 | The Arts of National Memory: Language, History, Culture

Steve Allen (Latin American History), "Mexico's 'Black King': José Nápoles, Race, and Mexican Nationalism"

Luvell Anderson (Philosophy), "Slurs and Offense"

Daina Harvey (Sociology), "The Black History Month and Collective Memory"

Eui Young Kim (English), "Ethnic American Literatures or American Literature?"

Hilary Haakenson (Art History), "Wifredo Lam: The Making of the Mask and the Manipulation of the Stereotype"

4:00- 4:45 | Political Action, Social Movements

Marsha Barrett (History), "A Study of Contradictions: Daniel Patrick Moynihan and his Case for National Action"

Anjali Srivastava (Planning and Public Policy), "Violence Against Women, Immigration and Personhood: How South Asian Women Are Differentiating a Movement in the United States"

Nicholas Tulach (Planning and Public Policy), "When Equal Rights Collide: Critical Mass and Transport Policy"

Vanessa Holden (History), Title TBA

4:50- 5:15 | Wrap-up Discussion

5:30- 7:00 | Dinner