

The Center for Race & Ethnicity, the Institute for Research on Women, and the Black Atlantic Seminar presents

RACE, GENDER, & THE (MORAL) HEALTH OF THE NATION:
A CRITICAL DIALOGUE

---

"A Cancer on the Body Politic": The Pursuit of Moral Health Since Martin Luther King, Jr.

Keith Wailoo (Rutgers University), Director, Center for Race & Ethnicity; Martin Luther King, Jr. Professor of History; Institute for Health, Health Care Policy, and Aging Research

Race, Gender & Health: The Need for New Paradigms

Evelynn Hammonds (Harvard University), Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Development and Diversity; Professor, Departments of History of Science and African & African American Studies

---

April 12th, 2007 at 4:30 p.m.
Reception follows at 6:00 p.m.
Institute for Research on Women
Ruth Crockett Dill Building
62 Ryders Lane
Douglass College Campus

Supported by a grant from the Committee to Advance Our Common Purposes

For more information, contact the IRW at (732) 932-9072