

The Center for Race and Ethnicity Presents

Between Privilege and Poverty: Perspectives on New Jersey Disparities

New Jersey is at once home to some of the wealthiest counties with the highest median income in the US, and to regions with the highest poverty rates in the nation. Join us for a cross-disciplinary conference as Rutgers faculty explores the production and consequences of economic, social and legal inequalities in New Jersey and on a national scale.

Among the invitees:

- JOEL CANTOR (Center for State Health Policy/Bloustein School for Planning and Public Policy)
- NANCY DiTOMASO (Rutgers Business School)
- HOWARD GILLETTE (RU-Camden, Departments of History/ Mid-Atlantic Regional Center for the Humanities)
- PETER GUARNACCIA (Department of Human Ecology)
- WOLFRAM HOEFER (Department of Landscape Architecture, SEBS)
- ROBIN LEICHENKO (Department of Geography)
- LISA MILLER (Department of Political Science)
- KATHE NEWMAN (Bloustein School for Planning and Public Policy)
- NORA HYLAND (Graduate School of Education)
- DAVID TROUTT (School of Law, Rutgers-Newark)
- ANNE PIEHL (Economics)
- MARTIN BUNZL (Philosophy)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24TH

9:00 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

(LUNCH AND REFRESHMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED)

RUTGERS STUDENT CENTER, COLLEGE AVE
MULTIPURPOSE ROOM

For more information, see <http://www.raceethnicity.rutgers.edu>, 732/932-2181