

The Center for Race and Ethnicity Presents

The Difference Difference Makes: Assessing the Value of Diversity

Biological Diversity. Business Diversity. Intellectual Diversity. Social Diversity. More than a buzzword. Rutgers faculty members from across the university discuss diversity as more than a catch-phrase, but as the cornerstone of the intellectual project of biology, business, education, and society.

- CHERYL WALL (Department of English)
- HOWARD MCGARY (Department of Philosophy)
- NANCY DITOMASO (Business School)
- ABRAM GABRIEL (Department of Molecular Biology and Biochemistry)
- KEITH WAILOO (Director, Center for Race & Ethnicity/Department of History)

FRIDAY, APRIL 3rd

12:00 P.M.

(LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED)

CENTER FOR RACE AND ETHNICITY

191 COLLEGE AVENUE, FIRST FLOOR

For more information, see <http://www.raceethnicity.rutgers.edu>, 732/932-2181