

5th Annual Faculty Forum on Race and Ethnicity

8:30 – 9:00 am: Coffee/Continental Breakfast Available

9:00 – 9:45am: Movements and Migrations: Bodies, Borders, and Texts (Ann Fabian, introduction)

- Mia Bay (History, RU-NB): Traveling Black: A Social History of Segregated Transportation
- Rocío Magaña (Anthropology, RU-NB): Politics of Migrant Rescue on the Arizona-Mexico Border
- Andrew Urban (History/American Studies, RU-NB): Race, Migration, and the Political Economy of Domestic Labor
- Ryan Kernan (English, RU-NB): Black Translation: An Internationalist Portrait of Langston Hughes and the Rise of Black Radicalism

(20 minutes of presentation, 25 minutes of discussion)

9:50- 10:30am: Multiple Identities: Race, Language and Sexuality (Jill Campaiola, introduction)

- Diana Sanchez (Psychology, RU-NB): Perceptions of Multiracial Targets: Implications for Affirmative Action Contexts
- Ariana Mangual Figueroa (GSE, RU-NB): Language Use and Learning in Multilingual Latino Communities Living in the U.S.
- Margarita Huayhua (Anthropology, RU-NB): Discrimination and Social Interaction in the Southern Andes
- Whitney Strub (History, RU-Newark): Race and Sexuality in Gay Male Erotic Representation from the Homophile Era through Gay Liberation

(20 minutes of presentation, 20 minutes of discussion)

10:30-10:40am: Break

10:40-11:25am Neighborhoods and Communities: Music, Crime, Politics and Bikes (Simone Delerme, introduction)

- Laurie Krivo (Sociology, RU-NB): Ethno-Racial Differences in Neighborhood Crime
- Naa Oyo A. Kwate (Human Ecology & Africana Studies, RU-NB): Measuring Racism on Two Wheels: Assessing the Built Environment in New York City's Black Neighborhoods via Bicycle
- Timothy Stewart-Winter (History, RU-Newark): Race and the Gay Rights Question: Neighborhoods, Politics and Power in Late Twentieth Century Chicago
- Carter Mathes (English, RU-NB): Soundscapes of Black Consciousness
- Leonardo Vazquez (Bloustein School, RU-NB): Planning for the Growing Wealth of Minorities in New Jersey

(25 minutes of presentations, and 20 minutes of discussion)

11:30am – 12:15 pm Racial and Ethnic Orders: The Lives of Women and Children (Sonja Thomas, introduction)

- Marisa Fuentes (History, RU-NB): Confined Bodies: Enslaved Women, Gender and Sexuality in the 18th Century Urban Atlantic
- Vikki Katz (SCI, RU-NB): Brokering Community: Children's Roles in the Immigrant Families' Adaptations
- Jacqueline Litt (Women's and Gender Studies/Dean of Douglass Residential College, RU-NB): Women's Care Work: Mothering and Inequality
- Thea Abu El-Haj (GSE, RU-NB): National Encounters, Transnational Lives: Palestinian American Youth, Education and the War on Terror

(20 minutes of presentation, 25 minutes of discussion)

12:15 – 1:00pm Lunch

1:00pm – 1:45 pm Civic Engagements: Classrooms, Schools, and Black Nationalism (Liz Reich, introduction)

- Dan Battey (GSE, RU-NB): Researching Relationships Among Racial Microaggressions, Teachers' Implicit Racial Attitudes, and the Quality of Instruction in Elementary Classrooms
- Anne Gregory (GSAPP, RU-NB): Examination of the Racial Discipline Gap in High School
- Donna Murch (History, RU-NB): Living for the City: Migration, Education and the Rise of the Black Panther Party in Oakland, California
- Ebelia Hernandez (GSE, RU-NB): Latinos in Higher Education
- Melanye Price (Africana Studies, RU-NB): Black Blame, Barack Obama and the Future of Black Politics

(25 minutes of presentations, 20 minutes of discussion)