This documentary takes us inside the lives of four homeless queer youth living in New York City at the end of the millennium. Intercutting interviews with fantasy sequences scripted and co-directed by Charly, Maxx, Peachy and Angel themselves, director Jörg Fockele asks us to bear witness to the young people's struggles to express their sexual, gender and racial identities in a city that has all-but failed to accept them.

Discussion with the director and members of the film's cast to follow.
