

Join us for our 5th Annual
GRADUATE FORUM on RACE AND ETHNICITY
Friday, February 17, 2012
Rutgers Student Center, College Avenue Campus

The Center for Race & Ethnicity invites Rutgers Master's and PhD candidates to take part in a cross-disciplinary conversation about graduate research related to the study of race and ethnicity. Students from all levels of study (from 1st year graduate students to ABDs) and from all schools at Rutgers, including Public Policy, Law, Social Work, Education, Business, and Arts and Sciences, are welcome! This event is part of the Center for Race & Ethnicity's ongoing initiative to promote interdisciplinary exchange and collaboration.

Panelists will provide a brief 5-7 minute presentation of their work. Formal papers are not required for participation.

SHARE your research and receive feedback on a course paper, dissertation proposal, chapter or poster in a casual and supportive environment. Well-developed projects and papers in progress are welcome.

MEET other Rutgers graduate students across schools, disciplines, and departments working on projects related to race and ethnicity. Each panel will be followed by informal, cross-disciplinary dialogue exploring future directions for research.

LEARN about fellowship resources and receive job market advice at workshops led by faculty and advanced grad students.

Deadline for submissions: January 20, 2012
Send to: CREgradforum@gmail.com

Submissions should include:

- 1) your name, year in school, department, campus, and email address;
- 2) a 150-250 word description of your presentation and argument;
- 3) a brief 1-2 line biography.

Organized by: Isra Ali (Media Studies), Jahaira Arias (History), Christopher Hayes (History), Shatima Jones (Sociology) and Wendy Wright (Political Science)
