

SAWYER SEMINAR on RACE, SPACE & PLACE in the AMERICAS

Sponsored by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. Co-Directed by Mia Bay and Ann Fabian

Race, Place and Nature Works-in-Progress Meetings

- 1/23 Kyla Schuller (Women's & Gender Studies, Rutgers-NB) - Orphans of Progress: The Child Migrants of the Lower East Side. Commentator: Allison Miller (History, Rutgers-NB)
- 2/6 Lyra Monteiro (History Postdoctoral Fellow, Rutgers-Newark) - Temples to White Mastery: Classical Plantation Landscapes and the Construction of Whiteness in the Early American Republic. Commentator: Ann Fabian (CRE/History, Rutgers-NB)
- 2/20 Ashley Falzetti (CRE/Women's & Gender Studies, Rutgers-NB) - The White Rose and an Old Tree: Keeping Rhetorics of Indigeneity in Place. Commentator: Alison Bernstein (Director, Institute for Women's Leadership, Rutgers-NB)
- 3/6 Shatema Threadcraft (Political Science/Women's & Gender Studies, Rutgers-NB) - Intimate Injustice, Political Obligation and the Black Ghetto. Commentator - Linda Bosniak (School of Law, Rutgers-Camden)

3/8 Conference on Race, Place and Nature Van Dyck Hall, Room 301, CAC

Presenters include: Chris Andersen, (Native Studies, University of Alberta); Juanita de Barros (History, McMaster University); Ann Fabian (History, Rutgers-NB); Jared Farmer (History, SUNY-Stonybrook); Rebecca Ginsberg (Landscape Architecture, University of Illinois-Urbana Champagne); Melissa A. Johnson (Anthropology/Environmental Studies, Southwestern University); Renisa Mawani (Sociology, University of British Columbia); Natalia Molina (History, University of California-San Diego); Samuel K. Roberts (History, Columbia University); Anadelia Romo (History, Texas State University); Melissa N. Stein (Gender & Women's Studies, University of Kentucky); Ellen Stroud (Environmental Problems and Policy, Bryn Mawr College); Amar Wahab (Sociology, York University)

Cities, Towns and Suburbs Works-in-Progress Meetings

- 3/27 Kartikeya Saboo (CRE/Anthropology, Rutgers-NB) - On Either Side of the Invisible Door: Living in a Divided Neighborhood. Commentator: Beryl Satter (History, Rutgers-Newark)
- 4/10 Roosbelinda Cárdenas (CRE Postdoctoral Associate, Rutgers-NB) - Thanks To Forced Displacement": Victimized Blackness In Multicultural Colombia. Commentator: Daniel Goldstein (Anthropology, Rutgers-NB)
- 4/24 Timothy Stewart-Winter (History, Rutgers-Newark) - Putting the AIDS Crisis in Its Place: Public Health, Neoliberalism, and Urban History. Commentator: Seth Koven (History, Rutgers-NB)
- 5/1 Louis Prisock (Africana Studies, Rutgers-NB) - Suburban Dreams?: Race, Suburbia, and African Americans. Commentator: Alvin Tillery (Political Science, Rutgers-NB)

5/2-3 Conference on Cities, Towns and Suburbs Alexander Library, CAC

Keynote: Douglas Massey (Sociology, Princeton University)

Author of Brokered Boundaries: Creating Immigrant Identity in Anti-Immigrant Times (2010)

Presenters Include: Guadalupe Garcia (History, Tulane University); Andrew Friedman (History, Haverford College), Su'ad Abdul Khabeer (Anthropology, Purdue University); Wendy Cheng (Asian Pacific-American Studies, Arizona State University); Joshua Guild (History, Princeton); Scott Kurashige (American Culture, University of Michigan); Karen B. Murray (Political Science, York University); Ellen Wu (History, University of Indiana); Andrew Sandoval-Strausz (History, University of New Mexico); Zaire Dinzey-Flores (Sociology, Rutgers-NB); Marisa Fuentes (Women's and Gender Studies, Rutgers-NB); Beryl Satter (History, Rutgers-Newark)

All Works-in-Progress sessions meet 1:00pm at the Rutgers CRE, 191 College Ave, 1st Floor, New Brunswick. For copies of the papers, please contact mkissil@rci.rutgers.edu. For conference information please consult <http://raceethnicity.rutgers.edu/>.