

Join us for the Center for Race & Ethnicity's 7th Annual
GRADUATE FORUM on RACE AND ETHNICITY
Friday, February 21, 2014
Pane Room, Alexander Library, College Avenue, New Brunswick

The Center for Race & Ethnicity invites Rutgers M.A. and Ph.D. students to take part in a cross-disciplinary conversation about graduate research related to the study of race and ethnicity. Students from all levels of study (from 1st year graduate students to ABDs) and from all campuses and schools at Rutgers, including Public Policy, Law, Social Work, Education, Business, and Arts and Sciences, are welcome! This event is part of the Center for Race & Ethnicity's ongoing initiative to promote interdisciplinary exchange and collaboration.

Panelists will give a brief 5-7 minute presentation of their work. Formal papers are not required for participation.

SHARE your research and receive feedback on a course paper, dissertation proposal, chapter, or poster in a casual and supportive environment. Well-developed projects and papers in progress are welcome.

MEET other Rutgers graduate students across schools, disciplines, and departments working on projects related to race and ethnicity. Each panel will be followed by informal, cross-disciplinary dialogue exploring future directions for research.

LEARN about how to navigate various aspects of the academy at a workshop led by faculty and advanced graduate students.

Deadline for submissions: January 21, 2014
Send to: CREgradforum@gmail.com

Submissions should include:

- 1) Your name, year in school, department, campus, and email address
- 2) A 150-250 word description of your presentation and argument
- 3) A brief 1-2 line biography

Organized by: Mekala Audain (History), Anandini Dar (Childhood Studies), Donovan Ramon (English), and Kaia Shivers (School of Communication and Information).

For more information about the CRE or this forum, visit <http://raceethnicity.rutgers.edu> or email us at CREgradforum@gmail.com. Also check out the CRE Facebook page and "like" it for updates on our events.