

THE CENTER FOR RACE AND ETHNICITY PRESENTS

MOOZ-LUM

Thursday, April 2nd, 6-9pm 191 College Avenue, 1st Floor, New Brunswick, NJ 08901

TRIALS OF A MUSLIM
AMERICAN BOY WHO STRUGGLES TO FIND HIS IDENTITY

Next in the Growing Up Raced Film Series

Join us for our screening of director Qasim “Q” Basir’s independent film, “Mooz-lum” (2010), and a discussion facilitated by Hakim Zainiddinov, a CRE graduate assistant and doctoral candidate in the Department of Sociology.

Pizza and refreshments will be served

RSVP to raceethnicity@sas.rutgers.edu

RUTGERS
Office of Institutional
Diversity and Inclusion